POLICY AND PROCEDURES

MATERIALITY THRESHOLDS:

- As stated above, in terms of the Regulation 30 of the Regulations, the Company is required to make disclosures of any events or information which, in the opinion of the Board of the Company, is material. Further, the events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III are deemed to be material events and the Company is mandatorily required to make disclosure of such events. The Company is required to make disclosure of events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III, based on application of the guidelines for materiality as set out in this Policy.
- Materiality must be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/event.
- In this context, the following has been approved and adopted by the Board the Company at its meeting held on February 9, 2016, and amended on February 10, 2022, with the objective of determining materiality of events:
 1. The events specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations (as amended from time to time) shall be disclosed by the Company as applicable from time-to-time and in a manner as set out in the Regulations and this Policy.
 2. For disclosing the events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III, the Company shall consider the following criteria for determination of materiality of an event/information:
 - a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly;
 - b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date.

Policy of Determination of Materiality of Events/Information

- c) Where it would be difficult to report any event including events specified in Para B of Part of Schedule III and set out in Annexure to this Policy, based on qualitative criteria as stated in points a) and b) above, the same may be considered material for disclosure, upon meeting materiality threshold as mentioned herein below:

For events specified in Annexure of this Policy, if the impact of the occurrence of such an event would exceed 10% of the gross turnover of the Company. The above limit shall be calculated based on the last available audited annual financial statements of the Company.

- d) in case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses a to c are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board and/or the Chief Financial Officer/Company Secretary of the Company (person responsible), the event/information is considered material.
- e) Following shall be the additional considerations in determining the materiality thresholds as stated above:
- materiality to be assessed at the level of each individual disclosure requirement and, where relevant, on an aggregate basis; and
 - additional considerations to be taken into account by the Company when they are considered as plausible and objectively reasonable.
3. As specified in Para C of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations, the Company shall promptly disclose any other information/event viz., major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the financial statements of the Company and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the Company which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the Company to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

DISCLOSURE OF EVENTS / INFORMATION:

1. Any event/information purported to be reportable under Regulation 30 of the Regulations shall be informed to the Managing Director/Chief Financial Officer/ Company Secretary of the Company on an immediate basis with adequate supporting data/information to facilitate a prompt and appropriate disclosure. Any other event, even if not covered under the Regulations but is potentially of price sensitive nature,

Policy of Determination of Materiality of Events/Information
